

Maya and the Enchanted Forest

Chapter 1: The Mysterious Spark

Maya, a curious seven-year-old girl, lived near a magical forest. One day, she noticed a glowing blue spark dancing near the gate to the forest. As she touched the gate, it opened on its own, and the spark invited her in.

Chapter 2: Benny the Bear

Inside the forest, Maya met a small bear named Benny with a mushroom hat. Benny explained that the forest was losing its colors because Queen Irida, a butterfly, lost her magical paintbrush. Maya promised to help.

Chapter 3: The Hidden Paintbrush

Benny and Maya visited Wise Owl, who gave them riddle:
‘Find the place where colors dance alone.’
They searched and found a rainbow above a sparkling pond. In its depths, the magical paintbrush shimmered.

Chapter 4: The Forest Restored

The blue spark dived into the pond and brought the paintbrush to Maya. She returned it to Queen Irida, who happily painted the forest back to life. As a thank you, Maya received a magical painting to remember the adventure forever.

